Ratnam is all set to throw a twist in the Bollywood industry with his action comedy venture 'Kismat'. It is being touted as a 'Made in Andhra' film by its makers. Recently, director Ratnam said the film will be completely shot in Hyderabad as it will depict the city as it is and not as an underworld hub. "It will be the true depiction of Hyderabad as people like to believe. Hyderabad will definitely be there, not underworld...There will be very few scenes where something is to be looked in the wrong light. The action is set in Hyderabad. The film will be completely shot here," he said.

"After 'Mast' we had 'Bombay' and 'Masthan' - both made in Bombay and this one will be made in Hyderabad," he further added. "Kismat", made on a budget of 12.5 crore, will feature Arshad Warsi, 82157476af
